REPORT ON EXTENSION LECTURE ON LIFE AND LEGACY OF SRI GURU NANAK DEV JI

An Extension lecture on reflections on life and legacy of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji was organized at Khalsa College of Education, G.T. Road, Amritsar on 26 November, 2018. S. Gurinder Singh Mann from New York was the resource person of the day. College Principal Dr Harpreet Kaur formally welcomed the resource person and after that blessings of Almighty were invoked by reciting the college shabad (De Shiva Var Mohe.). S. Gurinder Singh Mann published a research paper on Gur Nanak philosophy entitled 'Guru Nanak's Life and Legacy: An Appraisal'. In his interactions with students, he gave insights about Nanak Ji and said that Guru Nanak (1469–1539), the founder of the Sikh community, is a subject of perennial interest for the Sikhs and their scholars, and a quick look at any bibliography on the subject would reflect the range and the depth of writings available on various aspects of his life and teachings. Given his relatively recent dates, there is a wide variety of sources available about his life and mission (Jagat nistarān). These comprise texts, including his poetic compositions and the writings of his immediate successors and early followers; sites such as Talwandi, the place of his birth, and Kartarpur (The Town of the Creator), the centre he established; and two known artifacts associated with his life. These sources provide primary information for a scholarly reconstruction of the Guru's life. The students learnt a lot about the life and legacy of Sri Guru Nanak Dev Ji through this lecture.

REPORT ON EXTENSION LECTURE ON STRESS MANAGEMENT AND POSITIVE THINKING

An Extension lecture was delivered on "Stress Management and Positive Thinking". It was conducted on 05 Feb, 2019 at Bhai Ram Singh Hall, Khalsa College of Education, Amritsar. The lecture was delivered by Dr. Davinder Singh Johal, Head of Department of Psychology, Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar. He discussed about how keep your mind free from stress and when stress is prolonged or particularly frustrating, it becomes distress. He suggested some techniques to cope with stress for example: exercise is an excellent way to relieve stress and to relax. However, coping with stress effectively involves more than learning the techniques of certain mental or physical exercises. He threw light on the importance of positive thinking for living a healthy life. Positive thinking includes healthy thinking-that is, having a good attitude toward self and life in general. The different forms of stress in various humorous examples were enumerated in the lecture. It was a refreshing and reviving lecture. The resource person exhorted the students to share their emotional problems with someone whom they can trust. In the end, a formal vote of thanks was proposed by Mrs. Poonampreet Kaur Dhillon on the behalf of faculty members.
